G. Bowie Link joined Moore Ingram Johnson & Steele in 2018 as a member of the Firm's Litigation Department. His practice areas include Commercial Litigation, Business Litigation, and Insurance/Liability Defense.

Born on January 24, 1991, Bowie is a Georgia native growing up just a few minutes from Callaway Gardens in Harris County, near Columbus. He received his undergraduate degree from Mercer University where he majored in Business Marketing and Economics, with a minor in Chemistry, and was a member of Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity.

Bowie was awarded his J.D. from the Mercer University Walter F. George School of Law, graduating in 2016. While in law school he was a member of the Student Bar Association Executive Board and Phi Alpha Delta Legal Fraternity. During his time in law school, Bowie interned with the District Attorney's office in Muscogee County as well as clerked for the Honorable Walter L. Gray, III in the Russell County District Court. Bowie was admitted to the State Bar of Georgia in 2016.

After law school, Bowie was the Staff Attorney for the Honorable Frank J. Jordan, Jr. and Honorable William C. Rumer in the Superior Court of the Chattahoochee Judicial Circuit. During his time in Columbus, GA, Bowie was an Associate in the Columbus Inn of Court.

In his spare time, Bowie enjoys traveling, playing sports, enjoying the outdoors, and spending time with his friends and family.
