Sarah Best joined Moore Ingram Johnson & Steele in 2010 and works out of the firm's Tennessee office. She practices primarily in the areas of General Liability and Workers' Compensation Defense.

Born and raised in East Tennessee, Sarah received her B.A. in Speech Communication and Political Science from Carson-Newman College in 2003, magna cum laude, and her J.D. from the University of Tennessee College of Law in 2006. While in law school, Sarah served as a research assistant with the Clayton Center for Entrepreneurial Law. She received awards for Outstanding Achievement in Interviewing and Counseling, as well as for Outstanding Achievement in Jurisprudence.

Sarah was admitted to the Tennessee bar in 2006, and to the Kentucky bar in 2007. She is a member of the Tennessee Bar Association, the Knoxville Bar Association and the Kentucky Bar Association. Sarah lives in Maryville and enjoys cheering on the Tennessee Vols, reading, traveling, and spending time with her husband and son.
