Kenneth Hall joined Moore Ingram Johnson & Steele, LLP in May, 2014 as an associate in the Firm's Taxation and Estate Planning Departments in the Marietta office. Kenny received his Master of Laws Degree (LL.M) in taxation from the University of Florida, Levin College of Law, his J.D. from Walter F. George School of Law, Mercer University, Cum Laude, and his Bachelors of Arts in Political Science from the School of Public and International Affairs, University of Georgia, with a minor in Philosophy.

Kenny was admitted to the State Bar of Georgia in May of 2014, the Georgia Supreme Court in June of 2014, and the United States Tax Court in July of 2014.

Kenny's practice is primarily focused on tax planning for estates and corporations, handling disputes for individuals and corporations before the Internal Revenue Service, corporate formations and formation of captive insurance companies.

Outside of the office, Kenny enjoys watching the University of Georgia athletics programs and playing golf, tennis, rugby, and basketball.
