Ryan Ingram joined Moore Ingram Johnson & Steele in 2010, as a member of the firm's Litigation Department. His practice areas include Commercial Litigation, Business Litigation, and Insurance / Liability Defense. Ryan is admitted to practice in Georgia's State and Superior Courts, the Court of Appeals of Georgia, the Supreme Court of Georgia, the United States District Court, Northern District of Georgia, and the 11th Circuit Court of Appeals.

Born in Marietta, Georgia, Ryan attended the University of Georgia, earning a B.A. in Political Science and International Affairs in 2007. While at the University of Georgia, Ryan also spent a semester in Valencia, Spain earning a minor in Spanish Language at the University of Valencia. Ryan graduated cum laude from Mercer University's Walter F. George School of Law in Macon, Georgia in 2010, earning his J.D. and a Certificate in Advanced Legal Writing, Research, and Drafting. While at Mercer, Ryan worked as a summer clerk for the Honorable Judge Debra Bernes on the Georgia Court of Appeals and prosecuted juvenile criminals for the Bibb County District Attorney's Office. Ryan also served as the Editor-in-Chief of the Mercer Law Review.

Ryan is active with the Cobb Bar and currently serves as a member of the Cobb Bar Board of Trustees.
